

Getting Medicare right

Charity programs that help pay for prescriptions

If you have Medicare Part D coverage but still have trouble paying for your prescriptions, there are charities that may be able to help. Some of these programs may also help pay for drugs Part B covers, such as oral anti-cancer drugs.

Note: This table is not comprehensive.

Program	Benefits	Eligibility*	How do you get it?
CancerCare Co-Payment Assistance Foundation www.cancercarecopay.org/	Provides financial assistance for certain cancer treatment drugs.	You must <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Meet certain cancer diagnosis and treatment criteria (http://portal.cancercarecopay.org/Funds-Available/Diagnoses) • Be insured • Have an income up to four or five times the federal poverty level (depending on fund) 	Call 866-55-COPAY or visit http://portal.cancercarecopay.org/Enroll-Now
Caring Voice Coalition www.caringvoice.org	Provides financial assistance for prescription drugs for people with certain chronic conditions.	You must <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Be diagnosed with one of the conditions covered by Caring Voice Coalition (http://www.caringvoice.org/diseases/) • Meet other criteria, depending on fund (such as residency requirements, income limits, and having prescription insurance) 	Call 888-267-1440 or visit https://cloud9.caringvoice.org/Account/LogOn#Home

* To determine if you are eligible, these programs may consider your income, cost of living (dependent on your family size), and medical expenses (including insurance premiums, doctor and hospital expenses, and what you pay for your prescription drugs). You may qualify even if your income is high if your medical expenses are also high or if you have a lot of people in your household. Income figures are based on the Federal Poverty Level, which change every year between February and March.

Program	Benefits	Eligibility*	How do you get it?
Good Days www.mygooddays.org	Provides financial assistance for people with certain chronic conditions who need medications.	You must <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Have a valid social security number and be receiving treatment in the U.S. or U.S. territories • Have valid health insurance with at least 50% coverage • Be diagnosed with a chronic condition currently served by Good Days, and prescribed an FDA-approved treatment for the diagnosis (https://www.mygooddays.org/for-patients/diseases-and-medications-covered/) • Have a household income at or below 500% of the Federal Poverty Level 	Call 877-968-7233 or visit https://www.mygooddays.org/for-patients/enroll/
The HealthWell Foundation www.healthwellfoundation.org	Provides financial assistance for people with chronic and life-altering illnesses to help pay for drug copayments, premiums, and deductibles.	You must <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Be treated for disease that HealthWell currently covers (https://www.healthwellfoundation.org/what-we-do/diseases-and-medications/) • Have insurance that covers your medication • Have a household income up to 400-500% of the Federal Poverty Level • Be receiving treatment in the U.S. 	Call 800-675-8416 or visit http://www.healthwellfoundation.org/how-to-apply.html

* To determine if you are eligible, these programs may consider your income, cost of living (dependent on your family size), and medical expenses (including insurance premiums, doctor and hospital expenses, and what you pay for your prescription drugs). You may qualify even if your income is high if your medical expenses are also high or if you have a lot of people in your household. Income figures are based on the Federal Poverty Level, which change every year between February and March.

Program	Benefits	Eligibility*	How do you get it?
The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society (LLS) www.lls.org	Provides financial assistance toward blood cancer treatment-related copays, private health insurance premiums, Medicare Part B, Medicare Part D, supplemental insurance, Medicare Advantage Plan premiums, Medicaid spend-downs or copays	You must <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Have a household income at or below 500% of the Federal Poverty Level • Be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident of the U.S. or Puerto Rico • Have medical insurance and/or prescription insurance • Have a blood cancer diagnosis that is covered by LLS and confirmed by your doctor (http://www.lls.org/support/financial-support/co-pay-assistance-program#Claims Information) 	Call 877-557-2672 or visit https://cprportal.lls.org/
National Organization for Rare Disorders (NORD) www.rarediseases.org	Provides financial assistance to help people pay for insurance premiums and copays	You must <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Have an applicable diagnosis or physician referral (https://rarediseases.org/for-patients-and-families/help-access-medications/patient-assistance-programs-2/) • Currently live in the U.S. • Have a household income up to 404% of the Federal Poverty Level 	Call 800-999-6673 or visit https://rarediseases.org/for-patients-and-families/help-access-medications/patient-assistance-programs-2/ to locate a program and learn how to apply

* To determine if you are eligible, these programs may consider your income, cost of living (dependent on your family size), and medical expenses (including insurance premiums, doctor and hospital expenses, and what you pay for your prescription drugs). You may qualify even if your income is high if your medical expenses are also high or if you have a lot of people in your household. Income figures are based on the Federal Poverty Level, which change every year between February and March.

Program	Benefits	Eligibility*	How do you get it?
Patient Advocate Foundation's Co-Pay Relief (CPR) www.copays.org	Provides financial assistance to help pay prescription drug copays.	You must <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Be diagnosed with and taking medication for specific conditions (https://www.copays.org/diseases) • Meet other requirements, depending on fund (such as residency requirements, income limits, and having prescription insurance) 	Call 866-512-3861 or visit https://www.copays.org/gateway
Patient Access Network (PAN) Foundation https://panfoundation.org/	Provides financial assistance to people with chronic and rare diseases who need help paying out-of-pocket costs.	You must <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Meet certain medical and financial criteria (https://panfoundation.org/index.php/en/patients/how-to-apply/frequently-asked-questions#3) 	Call 866-316-7263 or visit https://panfoundation.org/index.php/en/patients/how-to-apply
Patient Services Incorporated (PSI) www.patientservicesinc.org	Provides financial assistance to people with specific conditions to help pay their prescription copays, regardless of income.	You must <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Have one of the conditions for which PSI currently has a program (http://www.patientservicesinc.org/Patients/Supported-Illnesses) • Be a U.S. resident and receive treatment from a U.S. provider • Meet other criteria, depending on program (such as having health insurance) 	Call 800-366-7741 or visit https://www.patientservicesinc.org/apply-for-assistance/default.aspx

* To determine if you are eligible, these programs may consider your income, cost of living (dependent on your family size), and medical expenses (including insurance premiums, doctor and hospital expenses, and what you pay for your prescription drugs). You may qualify even if your income is high if your medical expenses are also high or if you have a lot of people in your household. Income figures are based on the Federal Poverty Level, which change every year between February and March.